

AcmeOps Data Residency

AcmeOps stores production customer data in the US region by default. Enterprise customers can request EU regional storage during onboarding. Data residency changes require a planned migration window of at least two business days.

Backups are encrypted and retained for 35 days. Audit log exports are not moved automatically during a residency migration; customers must export historical logs before the migration if they need an archive.

Metadata: product=acmeops, doc_type=compliance, plan=enterprise